FOREWORD

This "Personnel Security Program Regulation" is reissued under the authority of DoD Directive 5200.2, "DoD Personnel Security Program," December 20, 1979. It contains expanded direction and procedures for implementing those references cited in Chapter 1 and in Appendix A of this Regulation that pertain to acceptance and retention of DoD military, civilian, consultant and contractor personnel and of granting such persons access to classified information or assignment to a sensitive position. It also implements such recommendations from the Defense Security Review Commission Report as pertains to personnel security and approved by the Secretary of Defense.

DoD 5200.2-R, "Department of Defense Personnel Security Program," December 1979, is hereby canceled as of December 31, 1986. The effective date of this Regulation is January 1, 1987.

The provisions of this Regulation apply to the Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD) and activities supported administratively by OSD, the Military Departments, the Organization of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (OJCS), the Unified and Specified Commands, and the Defense Agencies.

This Regulation is mandatory for use by all DoD Components. Heads of DoD Components may issue supplementary instructions when necessary to provide for internal administration of this Regulation within their respective components.

Forward communications, including recommended changes, regarding this Regulation and copies of supplemental instructions issued, through appropriate channels to: Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Policy, Attention: Director Counter-intelligence and Investigative Programs, Room 3C-267, The Pentagon, Washington, D.C. 20301-2200.

This Regulation is being published in Title 32, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). DoD Components may obtain copies of this Regulation through their own publications channels. Federal Agencies and the public may obtain copies from the U.S. Department of Commerce, National Technical Information Service, 5285 Port Royal Road, Springfield, VA 22161.
